

Let's celebrate Safer Internet Day

Complete this activity sheet whilst watching the assembly.

Today, we are thinking about trust online. What is trust?

Throughout this assembly there will be opportunities for you to pause the video, think and write down your ideas in the spaces below.

1. What are your favourite things to do online?

2. What is trust?

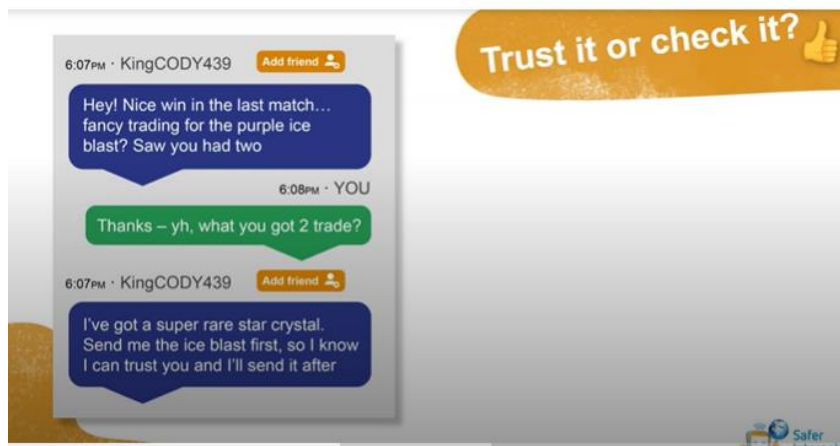

3. Can we trust everything that we see online?

4. What have you seen online that you thought that you couldn't trust?

Let's play the Game

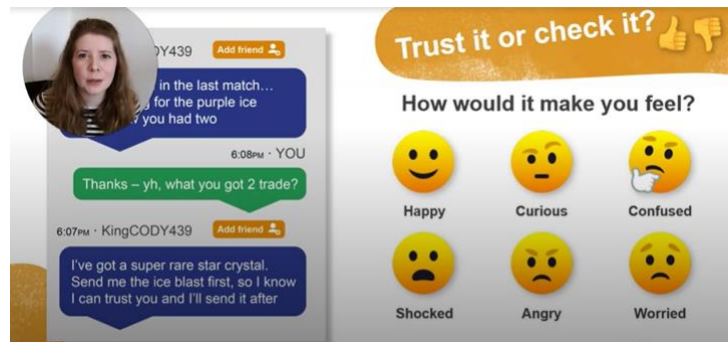

When you pause the video, put a circle around either the word trust or check.

5. If you saw this trade in an online game, would you trust it or check it?

It is important that we think about how we feel when we see things online.

6. How would seeing something like that trade on the internet make you feel?
Choose one of these 6 emotions or add one of your own.

7. If you saw this chain message online, would you trust it or check it?

8. And how would seeing something like that chain message on the internet make you feel?
Choose one of these 6 emotions or add one of your own.

9. If you saw this news headline online, would you trust it or check it?

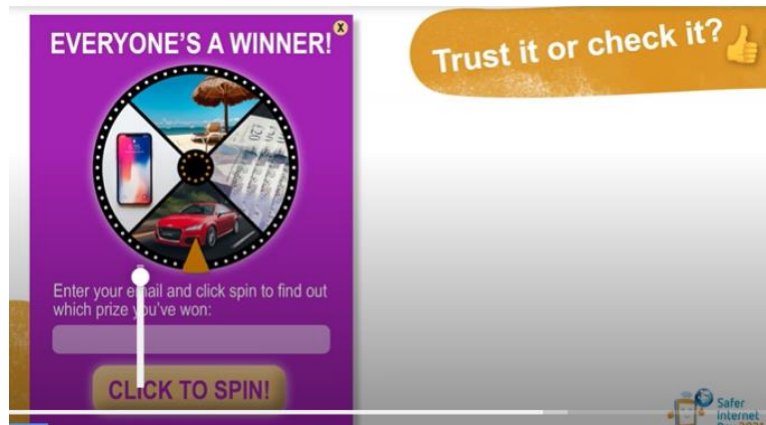

10. And how would seeing something like that news headline on the internet make you feel?

Choose one of these 6 emotions or add one of your own.

11. If you saw this prize spinner online, would you trust it or check it?

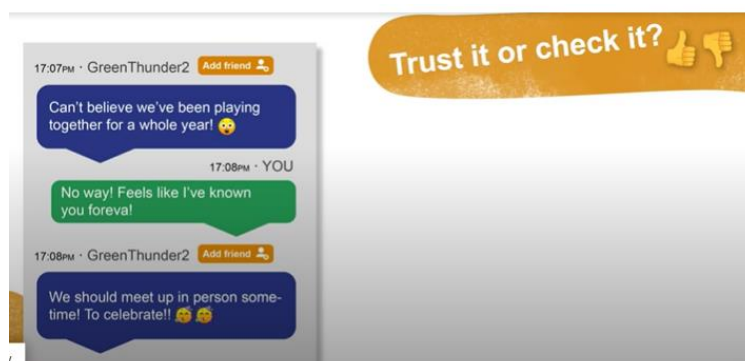

12. And how would seeing something like that prize spinner on the internet make you feel?

Choose one of these 6 emotions or add one of your own.

13. If you saw this person wanting to meet up online, would you trust it or check it?

14. And how would seeing something like that on the internet make you feel?

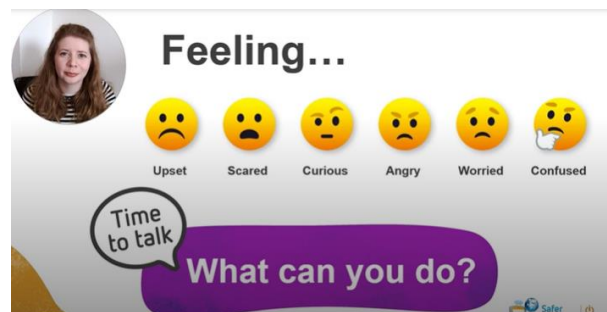

Choose one of these 6 emotions or add one of your own.

15. What should you do if you see something online that you think is untrustworthy or unreliable?

16. As an Internet detective, what 4 things can you do to stay safe?

-
-
-
-

17. What should you do if you are feeling any of those emotions because of something that has happened online?

Well done everyone!

